

Does your auditor complete your audit in a timely fashion?

Do you receive advice on completion of your accounts?

Have you ever had to pay late filing fees to the C.R.O?

Are you confident your auditor is focused on your business needs?

Rank your current auditor on the following five qualities:

Communication  / 10

Quality of work  / 10

Add Value to your Business  / 10

Audit Efficiency  / 10

Business advice  / 10

TOTAL:  / 50

Are you confident your auditor is focused on your business needs?

If the scoring is less than 40, you are receiving a below par service.

Auditing fee's should be treated like any other business cost and as such, value for money is a must.

It is recommended you tender your accounts every three years,
this will help maintain quality of service and value for money.
